

Tampa Bay Association of Black Journalists

The Tampa Bay Association of Black Journalists (TBABJ) is a non-profit chapter of the National Association of Black Journalists (NABJ). TBABJ strives to help ensure diversity in area media and accurate, balanced coverage of communities of color while serving as a resource for both established and aspiring communicators.

In the past, the group has organized media access workshops, student instruction programs, award shows and more. We'd like for you to become part of the chapter, to help ensure the success of these projects and enjoy some positive peer networking.

Please fill out the section below and email to TampaBayABJ@gmail.com or mail to TBABJ, P.O. Box 172092, Tampa, FL 33672. Mail a $25 check or money order for one year's membership dues along with your application or bring with you to the next TBABJ event. You may also pay dues online at www.tbabj.com. Your membership will begin upon receipt of membership dues.
